AFFAIRS OF POLAND.

VIENNA, MAY 19.

We hear from Cracow that on the 27th the Imperial Commiſſioner Baron de Margelich has formally taken poſſeſſion of that city in the name of the emperor. The troops were in parade, as well as the Jews, the magiſtrates, the univerſity, and the Chanoines. The biſhop received the commiſſioners in the cathadral where a throne was erected for him. The Baron cauſed the decree of the court which authoriſed him to take poſſeſſion of Cracow, to be read, and then the clergy and the [Auſtrian] troops paid homage to him as the repreſentative of their ſovereign. The Poliſh arms were afterwards taken down and thoſe of Auſtria ſubſtituted. The ceremony ended with a dinner of 80 covers which was followed in the evening by an illumination through the city. It was remarked that the houſe of the Ruſſian general Laſcy was the beſt illuminated.

MAY 16.

The Imperial proclamation relative to the new acquiſitions in Poland has been publiſhed at Vienna on the 11th inſt. and runs as follows:

Whereas circumſtances have led to a total diſmemberment of the kingdom of Poland, and whereas we have in conſequence given orders to take formally poſſeſſion of the diſtricts fallen to our ſhare by virtue of the treaties of partition concluded with the Imperial court of Ruſſia and the Royal court of Pruſſia. We have therefore appointed the Baron de Margelich our commiſſary plenipotentiary and charged him to take the preparatory ſteps for the organization of all the branches of the adminiſtration of thoſe provinces which are incorparated with our monarchy, as part of our kingdoms of Gallicia and Lodomiria, and this, in our opinion, will tend to the advantage of the ſubjects,

We now ordain to all the ſubjects and inhabitants of this new acquiſition, whatever their rank and occupation may be, to the clergymen as well as laymen, to the magiſtrates of cities, in ſhort to every one without exception, to recognize the appointed commiſſary plenipotentiary in that quality and to execute punctually whatever he ſhall ordain in our name. The time for adminiſtering the ſolemn oath of allegiance will afterwards be fixed, nevertheleſs, all the inhabitants under our ſovereignty and protection are bound to obey and behave as if they had already ſworn the oath of fidelity and ſubmiſſion, and therefore the Poliſh coat of arms ought every where to be taken down and that of our Imperial and Royal majeſties ſubſtituted. No tribunal ought in future to adminiſter juſtice, or pronounce judgment under any than our ſovereign name. And laſtly we ordain alſo that the public prayers in the churches be made for us and our illuſtrious houſe of Auſtria. By executing all this faithfully, the inhabitants will render themſelves worthy, and partakers of our royal favor, as on the contrary thoſe who againſt our expectations ſhould oppoſe the ſaid regulations or any other arrangement, that may in the proceſs of time be taken, muſt accuſe themſelves if we ſhall find ourſelves obliged againſt our will to employ rigorous meaſures, and the ſeverity of juſtice inſtead of the lenity with which we are uſed and inclined to treat all our ſubjects,

FRANCISCUS II.

LISBON, AIRIL 12.

A Negro Prince, ſon of the King of Porto Novo, on the coaſt of Mina, was chriſtened on the 2d inſt. in the Royal Chapel by his Eminence the Cardinal Patriarch, in the preſence of the firſt officers of the court and other illuſtrious perſons. The Prince of Braſil having ſtood god-father on the occaſion, the Negro Prince received the name of John Anthony de Braganza: her Majeſty decorated him with the order of Chriſtus, and his interpreter, Lewis G. dell'Aſcenſions, with the order of St. Jago. Friday following the Negro Prince, after having taken leave of their Royal Highneſſes, went on board a veſſel which is to carry him to the bay.

STOCKHOLM, MAY 13.

A courier arrived here yeſterday from St. Peterſburg, and to day we are aſſured that friendſhip and good underſtanding is entirely eſtabliſhed with Ruſſia. This news ſeems to be confirmed, by Col. Roſenſtein having yeſterday received orders to diſarm the galleys, which was begun to be done this morning. Government has alſo cauſed it to be officially announced at the exchange that the merchants might continue their commerce without the leaſt danger. Notwithſtanding all this the great fleet is to be put in condition for ſailing by the 24th of this month.

MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

In the condition and deſtiny of the daughters of Princes there is ſomething peculiarly a flicting and ſevere. From the cradle they are taught to repreſs every emotion that is a-kin to love, and to ſubdue every feeling that is allied to deſire; to them the ſweet and thrilling ſenſations that attend the progreſs of love are interdicted: & while the habits of their life prediſpoſe them to the ſofteſt ſenſations, they are forbidden to indulge them; though they daily ſee men of the moſt accompliſhed manners, they are expected to contemplate them as ſtatues, which they may admire, but for which they muſt not feel any affection; they are kept as mere conveniencies to ſoften the anger of a foe, to obtain an ally, to procure ſome commercial advantages, and not unfrequently are bartared away for ſome barren tract of land, or for ſome paltry right of fiſhery or navigation. As ſoon as they have attained a marriageable age, they are torn from the protection of their parents and the companions of their youth; are exported to foreign climates, and united to men whom they never ſaw, and therefore cannot love. Their marriage is at beſt but legal proſtitution, and how often do they find, that at the time they left their homes they loſt their peace; that they experience in a huſband any thing but a protector; that they are often treated with difference and ill nature by him, and not unfrequently with inſult and ſcorn by his miſtreſſes.

MIRABEAU'S ACCOUNT OF VOLTAIRE AND BUFFON.

"Voltaire inſulted Buffon, as he did every great man; I ſay, all, without excepting one dead or living, except Newton, his favorite, becauſe he had very poorly underſtood and explained him.—Buffon only anſwered him by public applauſe, and by ſimplicity and modeſty, the only true marks of genius and ſuperiority. I do not believe that there can be any thing in the world more ridiculous, than all that Voltaire has written on natural hiſtory; ſo much may ignorance, and a propenſity to ſatire, debaſe even genius: but I cannot conceive how the moſt infernal envy came to bloſſom in the mind of ſo great a man."

USEFUL AGRICULTURAL HINT.

The not permitting ſheep to lay long upon the ground, when firſt put to turnips, but to move them about at ſtated intervals in the day and night, has been found to prevent that fatal diſorder called the water in ſheep, which ariſes from their gorging themſelves with turnips, and then remaining without exerciſe to carry off the biginniug of the complaint. This method is ſucceſsfully practiſed in Northumberland, at the ſmall expence of a little additional trouble to the ſhepherd.

ALTERATION.

A company of comedians, giving a ſhort hiſtory of the tragedy of Louis XVI. and ſpeaking of that monarch, deſcribes him as having fallen "a ſavage ſacrafice to the ſanguinary decrees of a ſet of Democratic regicides." This is very little inferior to that celebrated theatrical ſcholium on a piece of Roman Hiſtory, which invited the ladies and gentlemen of a village in Cornwall to "feaſt their eyes and ears with a grand performance, which would exhibit the moſt diabolical and damnable deſigns, which, directed by dauntleſs defiance, deluged with deſtruction the devoted domains of a deſperate dictator."

OLD BAILEY.

Ann Weedley and her ſervant Ann Johnſon were indicted for ſtealing of ten guineas, the property of Mr Harding.

Mr Harding depoſed that he picked up Ann Woodley, at Drury-lane playhouſe, and handed her into a coach, and when he paid the link-boy he felt his purſe in his pocket; it contained ten guineas: but when he was getting out of the coach at the lady's lodging, in Cleaveland-ſtreet, he miſſed his purſe. The lady tried to make off at the other door, but the priſoner catching her, ſhe fell down: her maid, Ann Johnſon, ran to her, and there being ſome ſcrambling between the miſtreſs and her maid, he ſuppoſed the maid received the purſe, with which ſhe ran into the houſe: the miſtreſs then offered to let herſelf be ſearched, to which he replied, there was no neceſſity, he knew well enough where it went.

The coachman ſwore poſitively, the miſtreſs and her maid were not together before the lady offered to let herſelf be ſearched.—The priſoners were acquited.

A clergyman of the dioceſs of Cheſter, not 39 years of age, has married 780 couple, baptized 3750 children, buried 2850 corpſes, read the church ſervice 6570 times, and preached near 2000 ſermons; to which he added the regiſtering of this immenſe labour, the viſiting of at leaſt 6000 ſick perſons, and adminiſtering 6000 private ſacraments: and his ſalary never exceeded 50l. per annum!

PATRIOTISM.

"I love my country, good Horatio:
"And were it but a neſt of vip'rous ſerpents,
"I'd draw my tongue forth, reeking from its root,
"E'er I would ſpeak one word to her diſgrace."

ANON.

MR. RUSSELL,

HAVING lately returned from Europe, and having travelled from the ſeat of the Federal Government to this town, I cannot but expreſs my agreeable diſappointment at the vaſt improvements, the flouriſhing commerce, proſperous towns, and happy country, I have beheld. I had been taught to believe by the peruſal of ſome American papers at the Coffee houſes in London, that the contrary of what I have experienced, was the actual ſituation of affairs; and I have frequently felt the moſt pointed chagrin, when I have beheld foreigners reading the articles, which have thus degraded our country, and which I now know to be falſe.

It will readily be admitted, that there are your grumbling philoſophers, who are continually railing at the times, in every country; who ſee every thing through their own peviſh optics; and becauſe they happen to be curſed with feelings which will not permit them to enjoy the comforts of life as they paſs, are eternally endeavoring to make the reſt of the world as wretched as themſelves.—But I have ever thought it was the attribute of Patriotiſm, to appreciate its own country, when truth and candor would permit it. How then can we account for the calamitous tales which our pretended Patriots are continually publiſhing to the world, and which are all as falſe as hell? By no other rule, than that they are ſecret enemies under the garb of friends!

In India, the American character ſtands as high as that of any nation on earth.—All the papers are full of compliments on the wiſdom, prudence and magnanimity of our rulers. In Europe, I never heard a ſentiment uttered which tended in the leaſt to diſparage America, except from thoſe who bro't certain American papers in proof of their inſinuations; and whoſe object was to deter emigrations. The celebrated Dr. Winterbotham, in the preface of a work lately printed, ſpeaking of America, ſays, "The United States of America, as a riſing empire, open a vaſt field for the contemplative philoſo- [illegible] emigrated, and which ſtill continue to emigrate from its boſom—numbers which its preſent convulſed ſituation will certainly encreaſe, and which muſt add to the riches and ſtability, as well as prove highly advantageous to the commerce and manufactures of the American empire."

If an Engliſhman could write thus, what ought not to be the reſentments of an American public, when we ſee thoſe who aſſume the name of Americans, endeavoring to degrade their country in the eyes of all the world; and whoſe whole time ſeems devoted to the ſervice of thoſe who would wiſh to make the world believe America to be as barren as a ſand plain;—that its commerce was annihilated; that it contained no men either of genius or ſcience; that the rich lorded it over the poor; that ingratitude was practiſed as if it were the firſt of virtues; that the government were the hirelings of a Britiſh miniſtry; that that man whom the world conſiders as "as the point of the Pyramid of Patriotiſm, Integrity, and Public Virtue," was a traitor; that a JAY had been bribed by the kiſſing of a hand; and that his illuſtrious compeer, the great ADAMS, was an advocate for hereditary Monarchy? What I repeat ought not to be the reſentment of real Americans of a conduct to baſe and degrading? The moſt marked deteſtation.

AN AMERICAN,

FROM THE SALEM GAZETTE.

Biſhop Watſon's ten letters of Mr. Paine, in anſwer to the ſecond part of the Age of Reaſon, have been reprinted at Boſton. He is the author of the late Apology for Chriſtianity, and well known by his Chymical eſſays. Theſe letters are written with great candour and will probably give little offence to Chriſtians of any denomination. They are "deſignedly in a popular manner." He intends to addreſs Mr. Paine "with coolneſs and reſpect," but when Mr. Paine converts the purpoſes of ſlavery into debauchery from the command of Moſes, he reminds the writer of Paul's vehement addreſs to Elymas the ſorecerer. O full of ſubtlety & miſchief, thou child of the Devill, thou enemy of all righteouſneſs, wilt thou

The Doctor's ſolution of the Proph[illegible]ſy of Ahaz, with which Mr. P. makes ſo much ſport, is different from that of Dr. Prieſtley, but not ſo ſimple. The Dr. ſpeaks happily of the advantages of Chriſtianity compared with Deiſm, and Dr. Prieſtley's ſermons at Philadelphia appear with great ſtrength on that compariſon. In the cloſe, Dr. W. declines any defence of this work, ſhould it be attacked. This anſwer will be read by every ſerious Chriſtian as a pertinent and ſufficient reply to Mr. P. and it will be more agreeable as the Dr. has followed the charges of Mr. Paine as they ſtaud in his own book. When Mr. P ſpeaks of being the occaſion of the fall of the Bible, the Biſhop remarks, p 447, after having conceded in the beginning, "I have no reluctance in acknowledging that you poſſeſs a conſiderable ſhare of energy of language and accuteneſs of inveſtigation."

You look, I think, upon your production with a parent's partial eye, when you ſpeak of it in ſuch a ſtyle of ſelf-complacency. The Bible, ſir, has withſtood the learning of Porphyry and the power of Julian, to ſay nothing of the Manichean Fauſtus—It has reſiſted the genius of Bolingbroke, and wit of Voltaire, to ſay nothing of a numerous herd of inferior aſſailants, and it will not fall by force. You have barbed the blunted arrows of former adverſaries, you have feathered them with blaſphemy and ridicule; dipped them in your deadlieſt poiſon; aimed them with your utmoſt ſkill, ſhot them againſt the ſhield of truth with your utmoſt vigor; but like the feeble javelin of Priam, they will ſcarcely make the mark, will fall to the ground without a ſtroke."

IMPORTANT EUROPEAN INTELLIGENCE.

Received by the Hamburgh Packet, Captain Clay, arrived at Philadelphia.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 21.

The French army under General Lefebvre which had ſo rapidly advanced to the Lahn is now retreating ſtill more precipitately towards the Lower Rhine and Duſſeldorff.—The whole country in the neighbourhood of the Lahn is evacuated. They leave their patroles and advanced poſts in their places to conceal their retreat, and the the greater part of them are conſequently made priſoners.

In the action of the 15th near Wetzlar, which has had the moſt important conſequences, General Bonnard was killed. On the part of the Auſtrians, Count Schafgotch is dead of his wounds at Wetzlar. The brother of General Lefebvre was ſhot, and his body bro't off by the inhabitants of Wehrdorff, amid a ſhower off balls, to be buried at Wehrdorff. On the 19th the French evacuated Neuwied—a ſally was made on them from the Fortreſs of Ehrenbreitſtein as they retreated from before it, with conſiderable effect.

The fortreſs loſt only two men during the blockade. Large reinforcements are now on their march to the Rheingeau, to prevent the French croſſing the Rhine near Bacherach; 18,000 Auſtrians are alſo poſted at the Peterbege, oppoſite Rheinfels.

Marſhal Count Wurmſer has juſt received the command of the army in Italy. The archduke Charles will be commander in chief of the two armies of the Upper and Lower Rhine.

PARIS, JUNE 25.

The reports of peace, which were believed for ſeveral days, and which (ſays l'Eclair) we only repeated after the public voice, are attributed to the arrival in Paris of an Auſtrian ſecretary of legation to Switzerland. We are aſſured he came to propoſe an armiſtice—but the conditions could not be agreed on. This ſecretary is returned. It is believed that there is not now any open negotiations between France and Auſtria.

Adet, miniſter plenipotentiary of the republic to the United States of America, had demanded a ſucceſſor. The directory long ſought for one. That embaſſy had been offered to ſeveral citizens, who had refuſed it, and particularly to Marey. Circumſtances have changed in America, and the anti-Engliſh party having recovered their influence, Adet had expreſſed a deſire to retain his ſituation, which the directory has complied with.

JUNE 30.

It is believed that the Chevalier Azzara has already ſigned the preliminaries of peace in the Pope's name. One of the moſt curious clauſes in the treaty is that by which the holy father undertakes to put a ſtop to the ſchiſm which exiſts between the churches of France and Rome. On the other hand the Ami des Loix affirms that our troops are marching to Rome.

COUNCIL of FIVE HUNDRED.

SITTING OF JUNE 28.

A meſſage was received from the executive directory, conceived in nearly the following terms:

"Citizens Legiſlators, we have juſt received a letter from general Jourdan, informing us that the army of the Rhine and Moſelle paſſed the Rhine on the 24th of June.

"The falſe attacks made by general Moreau contributed not a little to facilitate this event, by drawing off the attention of the enemy to another quarter.

"We are maſters of Fort Kehl, and the bridges are re-eſtabliſhed.

"We ſhall publiſh farther particulars in the official Journals."*

The council decreed, on the motion of Boiſſier, that the armies of the Rhine and Moſelle had not ceaſed to deſerve well of their country.

* The particulars here referred to are contained in letters from generals Jourdan and Hauſſman which we ſhall give in our next.

LONDON, JUNE 29.

A letter from Copenhagen, of the 11th inſtant, inform us that the Swediſh fleet, compoſed of eight ſhips of the line and three frigates, and commanded by vice-admiral Nordenſkiold, arrived there on the 9th inſtant, and joined the Dutch ſquadron.——The combined fleet is, during the preſent month, to be under the orders of the Daniſh admiral De Kaas.

JULY 4.

We yeſterday received by expreſs Paris Journal, on the 30th ult. inclusive. By theſe we learn that the French very unexpectedly croſſed the Rhine at Straſburgh on the 23d ult. with a very conſiderable force, and taking the Auſtrians by ſurpriſe made themſelves maſters of the fort of Kehl. and after making from 6 to 700 priſoners, extended their deſtructive incurſion into the neighbouring country.

The Hamburgh mail due yeſterday arrived in town this morning, and brought an account of ſome farther advantages gained by the victorious Auſtrians over the flying French.

Different accounts from Frankfort of the 21ſt mention a ſecond action to have been fought at Okeroth on the 20th, in which the French were defeated with the loſs of 1800 men left dead on the field, 700 priſoners, and ſeveral pieces of cannon. Theſe accounts farther ſtate, that the column of French retiring from Neuwied is cut off, and muſt either ſurrender or be drowned in the Rhine. But it appears from General Jourdan's letter to the Directory, that they have effected their paſſage over that river.

The French are retreating with precipitation to the Duſſeldorff, and the Auſtrians are purſuing them thither with equal rapidity. The former are ſaid to have loſt no leſs than 40 pieces of artillery in their retreat.

[The foregoing intelligence was taken from the Sun of different dates—that of the 30th of June contains an account of the French being defeated in Italy with the loſs of upwards of 20,000 men, in an attempt to croſs the river Adige on the 2d and 3d of June—but this news is proved untrue by the following and other documents.]

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

Downing-Street, July 1.

Diſpatches have been this day received from Col. Graham, dated at the head-quarters of Gen. Beaulieu, Cagliano, near Roveredo, June 13th, and 14th, by which it appears that nothing material had occurred in that quarter ſince the 31ſt of May.

FROM THE BOSTON GENTINEL, AUGUST 24.

An arrival yeſterday occaſioned the circulation of various reports. They are contained in the following letter

FROM ST. CROIX, AUG. 4.

"We have received information from England, by a Daniſh veſſel from thence yeſterday, 35 days, that a very deciſive action had taken place on the Rhine, and the Auſtrians completely defeated, and all their artillery, baggage, &c. taken—further, that Pitt's houſe was burnt, and Fox in place.—Time will not permit my giving you particulars, further than that the majority of London by mobs, &c. inſiſt on a peace being immediately made, and which without doubt muſt be. It is probable you will receive all this, and more, before this reaches you, and therefore ſhall not be more particular."

[Highly improbable.]

Lands for Sale.

THAT valuable and well known tract of Land in Loudoun County, called the Long Glade, whereon Joel White lived for several years, and lying on the main road, leading from the town of Alexandria to Leesburg, being twenty two miles from the former, eighteen miles from George-Town and the Federal city, and about three miles from the Great Falls of Potowmac, where a new Town has been laid out, and considerable improvements already made. This tract contains thirteen hundred and twenty seven acres, is well timbered, the soil of an excellent quality for farming, and has a large proportion of fine meadow ground. There is a never failing stream of water running thro' the land with a good mill seat on it. It is clear of all incumorances, and an indisputeable title will be made to the purchaser, who, by paying a part of the purchase money in hand, may have a long credit, and easy payments, for the ballance, for terms apply to Col. Charles Little, in Fairfax County, near the Falls Church, or to the subscribers in Alexandria. Possession will be given at Christmas.

Wm. WILSON,
Wm. HERBERT.

August 8. 1mep.

A VERY VALUABLE MERCHANT MILL, A DISTILLERY AND BREWERY, AND SUNDRY STONE QUARRIES TO BE LET.

I WILL rent my Merchant Mill at the Little Falls of Potowmac, for any term, not less than seven, or more than eleven years, from the first day of September next. The Mill house is 42 by 40 feet, three stories high, built with stone, and has in it 8 pair of French burr stones, two overshot 18 feet water wheels, and Evans's machinery complete, with every other thing proper and necessary for carrying on the business with dispatch, and at as little expence as possible, all in good order.—From the mill to my landing on the Potomac river, (where craft of any burthen may deliver grain, and take in flour) it is about 40 yards, and from thence by water to George-Town and the City of Washington, about three miles, and to Alexandria about 11 miles. This situation aided by a sufficient capital, will command the produce of a very extensive back country, where large quantities of wheat and other grain is annually made, the distance to it being from 8 to 10 miles less, than to any market town upon the navigation of the Potowmack. There are on the premises a large stone Cooper's shop, a stone granery and a commodious Miller's house. At the landing aforesaid a bridge is now building over the Potomac, which is in great forwardness and probably will be finished the ensuing Fall.

There are also on the premises a Brewery and Distillery built with stone, in them are three stills, two coppers or boilers, with every necessary article, all new, and in good order, and sufficiently large to carry on the Brewery and Distillery, upon a very extensive plan. This property I will rent for the same term of years.

Upon my lands adjoining the premises, and along the banks of the river, where crafts may load with ease and dispatch, is an immense quantity of building and foundation stones, four quarries are now open, and as many more may be opened with ease, the stone taken from these quarries is better, and has the preference at this market, to any other stone brought to it. I will rent these quarries seperately or together as may best suit.

Upon the top of the hill, and about 200 yards from the Mill is a stone Dwelling house, large enough for the accommodation of a family, also, a kitchen, Dairy, smoke house, &c. and a garden enclosed, and in cultivation, the soil of which is equal in goodness to any in this state. I will also rent this property.

Adjoining to the Brewery and Distillery is a Smith's shop in which is a complete set of Blacksmith's tools, which I will also rent, and if agreeable I will hire to the tenant two negro blacksmiths, one of them is a complete workman.

If I rent out the stone quarries, I will sell three crafts which were built for the purpose of carrying stone. They will altogether bring upwards of 90 perch. Immediate possession will be given, for terms apply to the subscriber in this town.

The Mill, Brewery and Distillery with their appurtenances will be delivered to the tenant or tenants in good repair, and must be so returned, at the expiration of the lease or leases.
